DEFENDANT: JONATHAN JAMES PEREZ
CASE NUMBER: 14CR252 (JNE/TNL)(1)

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- a The defendant shall submit his person, residence, office, vehicle, or an area under the defendant's control to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer or supervised designee, at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a supervision violation. The defendant shall warn any other residents or third parties that the premises and areas under the defendant's control may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.
- b The defendant shall provide the probation officer access to any requested financial information, including credit reports, credit card bills, bank statements, and telephone bills.
- c The defendant shall be prohibited from incurring new credit charges or opening additional lines of credit without approval of the probation officer.
- d The defendant shall not possess or use a computer or other electronic device with access to any on-line computer service without prior approval of the U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services Office. The defendant's cooperation shall include, but not be limited to, allowing installation of a computer and Internet monitoring program and/or identifying computer systems, Internet-capable devices, and similar memory and electronic devices to which the defendant has access. Monitoring may include random examinations of computer systems along with Internet, electronic, and media storage devices under the defendant's control. The computer system or devices may be removed for a more thorough examination, if necessary. The defendant shall contribute to the cost of such monitoring services, based on the defendant's ability to pay, as deemed appropriate by the U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services Office.
- e The defendant shall not possess, view, access, or otherwise use child pornography or any material that is sexually stimulating or sexually oriented deemed to be inappropriate by the U.S. Probation Officer in consultation with the treatment provider.
- f The defendant shall not own, possess, or use photographic or video equipment, a camera phone, or any electronic device which can be used for covert photography without prior approval of the probation officer.
- g The defendant shall not associate with persons under the age of 18 except in the presence of a responsible adult who is aware of the nature of the defendant's background and current offense and who has been approved by the probation officer.
- h The defendant shall participate in sex offender and/or mental health treatment as approved by the probation officer and shall submit to risk assessment which may include but is not limited to physiological testing and polygraph/truth verification testing. Polygraph testing may be used following completion of primary treatment as directed by the probation officer to monitor adherence to the goals and objectives of treatment. Sex offender assessments and treatment are to be conducted by a therapist approved in advance by the probation office. Further, the defendant shall contribute to the costs of such treatment as determined by the Probation Office Co-Payment Program not to exceed the total cost of treatment.
- i If not employed at a regular lawful occupation, as deemed appropriate by the probation officer, the defendant may be required to perform up to 20 hours of community service per week until employed. The defendant may also participate in training, counseling, daily job search, or other employment-related activities, as directed by the probation officer.
